North American Highways specialise in fly drive tours throughout North America and throughout the year. Holidays are tailored for the individual traveller with flexible itineraries and at a pace to allow you to relax and take time out en route. These holidays are about the journey not just the destination, taking the scenic route rather than the freeway and experiencing the real culture and landscape of this vast and diverse continent.

We offer a lot more besides driving holidays, including small ship cruises in the coastal waters of Alaska, British Columbia and Baja California; river cruises in California's Wine Country from San Francisco; all sorts of spectacular railway journeys: bear viewing and whale watching; adventures in The Far North; deluxe escorted tours and any variation of these.

La Maurice National Park

This National Park boasts some of the most beautiful landscapes in the ancient Laurentian Mountains. Nearly all the park is covered in maple forests.

Dog sledding

Glide along white forest trails behind a team of huskies. Half day experience can be extended to a two night adventure.

Snowmobiling in the Laurentian Mountains

Fabulous day of adventure through the fantastic snowy landscapes of the Laurentian Mountains

Ice Hotel

Visit to the famous Ice Hotel constructed each year, optional stays can be arranged.

Québec in winter is full of activities to do, people dress up warmly and get going. The weather is usually crisp and cold and there are plenty of activities such as skating, skiing, snowmobiling, tobogganing, sledding and more to keep you occupied and busy. You can discover the joys of Québec's winter on this tour. A days snowmobiling through the fantastic snowy landscapes of the Laurentian mountains is followed by an introduction to a typical Canadian activity; ice fishing. You will then go on a snow shoeing excursion in the Boreal Forest. Time is then available in Québec City and Montréal for sightseeing and shopping before the return flight home.
