The Lincoln Highway

A scenic trail from Chicago heading west filled with history and stunning views.

Your adventure begins in Chicago. The 'Windy City' is rich in architecture, museums and shopping and situated on the tip of Lake Michigan. This is where Route 66 was born and you will follow the Mother Road towards Springfield, Illinois, birthplace of Abraham Lincoln, to St Louis. Tour the city sights here including the gateway arch and historic district. The iconic route skirts Mark Twain National Forest through Rolla and Springfield, Missouri onwards.

Spend two nights in Branson in the stunning Ozark Mountains before driving north through Lincoln next to Truman Lake and Lake of the Ozarks. Continue north to Kansas City or 'Fountain City', due to the 200 located here. Immerse yourself in the atmosphere of the blues and jazz clubs here before returning home.
