Mississippi & Music

Highlights

New Orleans

Birthplace of Jazz and familiar as the backdrop to numerous films New Orleans continues to be a vibrant and fascinating city.

Natchez

Shimmering with antebellum grace Natchez was once the capital of Mississippi.

Memphis

On a crossroads where people, ideas and culture have met and mixed. The setting for many a John Grisham book and film and home to Graceland.

Nashville

Nashville is known the world over as 'Music City', but in the USA it is also known as 'The Athens of the South' because of its rich culture and its universities and colleges.

Atlanta

A cosmopolitan city, the capital of the south, with a charming blend of old southern traditions and modern lifestyle. With many museums and other attractions.

Natchez Trace Parkway

A scenic two lane road following the path of Indians and trappers of the past with many historic sites along the way.

The Great River Road

Scenic drive following the Mississippi River.

Start in 'The Big Easy', New Orleans, still vibrant and colourful after Katrina, with the French Quarter and Bourbon Street. Follow the Mississippi through Baton Rouge and Plantation Country with its great homes to Natchez the setting for the Lady Killers remake. Take the Natchez Trace Parkway past Jackson and on to Greenwood in The Delta with fertile cotton fields and the birthplace of the blues. North to Memphis along Highway 61 and more rhythm. Heading east across Tennessee the scenery changes as does the musical heritage through rockabilly to country in Nashville, also the back-drop to the film The Matrix. From Nashville south to Chattanooga with more musical connotations, celebrating its railroad heritage, and also wonderful mountain scenery. Finally drive south to the Olympic city of Atlanta.

- 2nts New Orleans French Quarter, Chateau Le Moyne
- 2nts 176 miles to Natchez, Monmouth Plantation
- 1nt 155 miles to Greenwood, Bridgewater B&B
- 2nts 155 miles to Memphis, The Heartbreak Hotel
- 2nts 210 mile to Nashville, The Brentwood

Highlights

Warm Springs

Site of The Little White House a 6 room cottage built by President F D Roosevelt and where he died in 1945.

Vicksburg

Straddling a bluff where the Yazoo River joins the Mississippi Vicksburg was first planned in 1811 by the Reverend Vick. Now home to many museums including Vicksburg National Military Park.

Natchitoches

Natchitoches the original French Colony in Louisiana retains its European flavour through its architecture, heritage and lifestyle. At the heart lies Front Street, a brick thoroughfare where wrought iron balconies, restaurants and shops are to be found.

Lake Charles

The historic Charpentier District with its unique angular architecture contains museums and an arts community. Also riverboat gaming and a white sand inland beach.

Creole Nature Trail

When you travel the Creole Nature Trail you will get an up-close and personal view of Louisiana's unique environment. The Creole Nature Trail travels through thousands of acres of untouched wetlands that reflect an area blessed with some magnificent scenery.

Leave Atlanta south to Hamilton near Warm Springs and Columbus an area with connections to two past Presidents. Then travel west through the heart of Alabama and Montgomery central to the rise of the civil rights movement, and to Meridian Mississippi. Continue to Vicksburg an important strategic town in the civil war and now a popular tourist destination. The area has been the setting for many films including Mississippi Burning. Head further west to Natchitoches the oldest town in the Louisiana Purchase with a 33 block historic district and the location for Steel Magnolias. Follow the road south through the Kisatchie National Forest to Lake Charles, at the heart of Cajun Country. The journey then continues to New Orleans via the charming little town of St Francisville, with its magnificent oaks and impressive mansions.
